JOB TITLE:	INDIGENOUS EDUCATION ADVOCATE
JOB NUMBER:	128
RESPONSIBLE TO:	Principal or Designate
JOB SUMMARY:	Under the supervision of the principal or designate, and the guidance of classroom and district Indigenous education teacher(s), the Indigenous education advocate acts as a positive role model, bridges cultural differences, and supports students in achieving maximum benefit of the school system.

ILLUSTRATIVE EXAMPLES OF JOB DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. assist students in the development of effective coping strategies in areas such as academics, social, emotional, and behavioural;
2. facilitate understanding of Okanagan culture and values (may include Okanagan Language instruction and/or support);
3. bridge cultures by explaining and interpreting each to the other;
4. promote a positive self-image to students;
5. encourage participation of students and their families in the school community;
6. assist students and their families in accessing community services, resources and supports;
7. liaise with school/district staff, families, bands, community agencies and professionals regarding student success (includes arranging for parental consent for student information sharing);
8. monitor student progress through the collection of objective data as requested;
9. utilize technology to support student learning;
10. keep current by participating in job-related training and staff development;
11. communicate positively and effectively, and interact as a collaborative and consultative team member;
12. understand and act in accordance with school and district policies and procedures, district Health & Safety Manual and WorkSafeBC regulations;
13. maintain confidentiality; and
14. other duties as assigned.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS:

Note: The Okanagan Similkameen School District received special program approval on April 1, 2011 from the BC Human Rights Tribunal to hire only candidates of Indigenous ancestry for Indigenous Education Advocates.

1. grade 12;
2. six months experience working with students and their families to obtain knowledge of the needs and issues of Indigenous students, and the resources and services available to them;
3. knowledge and understanding of Okanagan culture and values (Okanagan language skills would be an asset);
4. demonstrated ability to bridge cultures by explaining and interpreting each to the other;
5. BC driver's licence;
6. demonstrated computer literacy skills including the ability to integrate the use of technology to support an effective learning environment;
7. demonstrated ability to work as part of a team;
8. effective communication skills in verbal, written and electronic format;
9. strong problem-solving and organizational skills; and
10. physical ability to perform all aspects of the position.
